25X1 1. In order to counteract anti-Soviet publications and anti-Soviet items appearing 25X1 in other local newspapers, the Soviets have taken the following steps:

25X1 a. Soon after the organization of the Association of Soviet Journalists in 25X1 Shanghai, Yakshamin, the chairman of the association, asked [redacted] 25X1 the China Press and [redacted] the China Weekly Review to watch all local papers for anti-Soviet items and to prepare articles to counteract them. These articles are published only after Yakshamin has approved them and they generally take the form of letters to the editor signed by persons other than the writers.
